

Model SW MMG

Description: steel reinforced epoxy resin that can be kneaded by hand, when moulded, providing fast and permanent repairs to iron and aluminium objects. It becomes black after treatment.

Applications: iron objectives, tanks, pipes, tools and machinery, it forms nuts and bolts on site , repairs vents, helps support and position installations and signals, repairs and moulds drawings and castings, enables prototypes to be made, fixes broken threads, repairs cracked castings, pipes, electrical installations, ducts, bolts and is also useful for other countless uses.